The Ihimi Class

By Otracis and ???

Note:
No reference of Ihimi has been found before this moment.

Abilities:
IC: Defy death, Duel, Stamina
OC: N/A
References: Defy Death - Monster abilities glossary
Duel - Duelist
Stamina - AL mercenary

The Forest Spirit:
The forest spirit is a powerful entity (probably fey, maybe haunt) that is using rainforest creatures to attack towns/cities and near the rainforest, and expand the forest more and more.

How it was obtained:
The Ihimi class was gifted to a player (Caspers) from a DI (Divine Intervention) from Death. This happened shortly after a long conversation with Death about the Forest Spirit. This conversation included Death saying that the Forest Spirit was interfering with death, and the resurrection process, but that it itself could not change that. Death also stated that the forest spirit was wearing its mask (The front of a skull), either to show defiance, or to show that it is like Death. Before giving Caspers the DI, Death asked Caspers, “do you wish to come back? If so, you will not be yourself.” This seems to mean that Caspers will lose part of herself (presumably memories?) if she gets the DI.

Possible theories/explanations:
We believe that this is a class of the first era elves. I know from a seance to the first era wood elves (the old AL necromancer ability, obtained from DI) that one of the wood elves who was a city leader turned on them, trapping all of them as zombies. They wanted us to rescue them but both of us did not know how to because they have been trapped. I want to do a seance