Hello everyone, I hope this finds you well.

Okay, well I have to make this quick, but, here goes nothing, on the mission board one of the missions was to go check out this haunt outside of town, we did it and found a mute dead elf haunt from really far south and they said all of their friends were also dead, and for like fifteen minutes, well wait, I'm getting ahead of myself when we found this haunt, we were attacked by skeletal spiders and Wolfwers that went berserk and had glowing green eyes, then I went down and my buddies evacuated so I was left with like four guys and a dead elf, and most of us were down, then my buddies came back in and healed most of us and after four waves of Wolfwers and spiders we managed to decipher that the haunt was trying to tell us, don't fight the spiders and Wolfwers, you'll get wrecked, but they are being controlled by a weird skull and will invade Tezch'tatl on all hallow's, also he is drawing power from the trees and is making them sick, and also, they gave me a really, really fancy scouts badge. Also, Bob nearly P.D.'d again and, again was saved by ??? and was told if he P.D.'s again, he would not be saved, and that there is a P.D. pit in the center of town and during all Hallow's, everyone in town will be sucked in.

warmly, Gil-Galad
