Deluhel's Diary - 31 Eighthmoon

First day adventuring, could be a mistake, not all adventures trustable.

Saw a demon, very angry, had moganti flail, soulfear uncomfortable as expected, will give to guardian.

Imps and demon liked to act scaryer then they are, say rude and mean things but only act when made mad. Don't like earthquakes

Note: Try leaving gifts for demon, maby he? she? they? they will let me use their morganti sometime

Better idea, get wheelbarow.

Guarded tower, was boring, one guy got in and incuisitorial people tested us.

Inquinsitors are weird, if they are bad it will be a sistemic thingy which will be hard to deal with.

I killed an innocent today, it felt bad but they could defend itself so it was fine. The fight was fun, it was a talus a big one. I got the final blow with my knife, will give to guardian.

Gnomes are up to something. They are following me he rocks, both talus and normal ones. Party helped them take rock form the weird dwarf. Maybe I should keep an ear out for what they are up to, maybe they know more then people think. I like them.

Need to carry some of my rope with me adventuring, bad bandits and stuff around, need to teach some of them a lesson.

Everyone like the king too much. Like I get he was important but he got himself disappeared. When a normal person disappears noone goes looking or cares, what was so great about him that means he needs so many people to look for him or care.

I like the tatoo guy with the nice shirt, I don't think i can trust him tho

List updates:

Mrs. 'I like to beat my wife and kids' didn't take message to heart, tell her again.

Keep eye on crown guy who is the ex of the definitely not a fey. He is a bit social climby, could be fine, could be issue.
