Year 277.1.3 - 5th of Ninthmoon

Observations: I am a coward.

Evidence: Outside the inn, last night (4th of ninthmoon, 10 o'clock)

→ told Calix I loved him
→ kissed Calix (on lips)
→ ran away before receiving a response

Predictions of outcome:

1. Calix never talks to me again

2. We talk, agree to forget about it, and return to normal

3. Read (#2), except things are awkward between us until the end of time

4. ~~He returns my feelings~~ → unlikely

5. Calix yells at me and then never talks to me again

6. A mage casts a permanent tree-form on me and saves me from my misery (also unlikely)

Next Steps:

1. ~~[illegible]~~

1. Avoid Calix for as long as I possibly can

Other notes:

→ research is going well, starting to find case studies
→ I have trained in dueling, might intersperse with ranger training
→ Zet'Ubar knows the sorcery word for 'dream' → led to a deep sleep and many dreams. Must follow up
→ Making friends - Leilani, Huilotl, Ptolemae, the one with the changing name, Zet...
→ Must keep an eye on Penelope - poor, poor woman...
