The Eldar Times

A weekly news report on the Eldar adventuring party (for those who care)

By Alaric Vane on the 25 of ninthmoon

Hello, it is Alaric Vane, reporting on the twenty-fifth of ninthmoon. There is not much to write about today, but I will write anyway.

At the inn, we decided whether to go to Halimin or Harmini. As we were in the inn, we heard some loud roaring and saw a dragon fly over. It was almost unanimous to go to the Harmini rainforest, so we went there. After a teleportation ritual, we decided what to do. Our mission choices were to help builders dig the trench, try to get unaligned fae to join the Shimmerglass elidhu, and defeat cultists. Out of the three, we chose to help builders dig the trench and defeat cultists (to my dismay, we didn't do the fae).

On the builder mission, we succeeded at protecting the builder against various creatures and he dug up a lot of the trench. On the cultists mission, as we were tracking a group of cultists, we encountered an effect that charmed builders around a large radius. We still do not know what caused this. Later, we found a group of cultists and after a fight, captured them, ending the day.

Alas, I have nothing else to write about, and will be heading out. Thank you for reading,
