Late chronicle - 16th of october Eldar

The first mission we decided to go on was going to Illionor and trying to deal with the mageocracy. We then decided to do something, but I forgot what it was. The first encounter on the way was some mageocracy member. We defeated them. The next encounter on the way was a large ring of people burning and dropped who were illion alliance around some pyromancer-diviner mage. We extinguished them, healed them, and then my party tried to chase after the mage. Once we entered the encounter, the mage had quite a few other mages surrounding them, and they were fighting the Illion Alliance. I managed to land a hit on the mage, but somehow the mage passively reflected that hit. Not even sorcery words were said. Our party got dropped.

The next thing we did was defend the gates. I wasn't on this mission, but I do know people were cowardly and ran. and the next week, kapow, we have medium-low chivalry? I DO WONDER WHY!!! But anyways, I should actually show the news and stuff for once, to my rough estimate: @:83 (City lvls: 15/blacksmith, historian, farmer. 10/Literary arts, diplomat, stonemason.) Chivalry: Medium-low, stable. I dont know the news. Innkeepers: Goldy: Quest Knight, Mid-low Chivalry, Human M, Generic eldar appearance. I did not get farther in jotting this down before I had to go to the teleport, and forgot to grab the news, but I think i know goldy's classes: 8-viking, 8-Mercenary? 2-Aethermancer

P.S: I just saw someone say the plural of "person" as "persons". whyyyyyyyy it should be "people"
