The parentheses are supposed to be there, its describing Chrys's notebook that they don't show anyone. Thanks! Chronicle starting... NOW!

(The notebook is filled with drawings. They're made with thin, charcoal-like lines, and they show different scenes.)
(The most recent one is a geometrical pyramid, but instead of going up it goes down. There's water in the bottom layer. Next to the sketch is a note written in shaky, incorrect handwriting.)
Faurm?
(There's another of a figure sitting on a roof, looking at a sunrise.)
Firrst freind
(A figure smiling, with pirate-like garb)
Secund freind
(A sketch of lavender, black tea leaves, and mint leaves)
Make wen get back
(A sketch of a garden with wild plants growing, and a small blanket rests in the center)
rest untill back
(A drawing of a camp of some sorts, with scribbles littering the grounds. The lines seem thicker than usual. There's no note next to this one.)
(An unfinished sketch of two figures, half dissolved into nothingness. Tiny wet spots cover the sketch, and there's a single word written next to the two figures.)
